Ike Could Ask Santa for a Lot of Things

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (P) — President Eisenhower's letter to Santa Claus — if he were to write to Santa Claus at all — could go like this, since it isn't hard to guess what he has on his mind:

Dear Mr. Santa:
I have been living at my present address the past six years. It's a big white house on Pennsylvania Avenue. It has fine ellipses. So you should have no trouble finding me.

Since I have been here, I've done my best not to say anything awful and sometimes — about every two years — around election time — at some of the neighbors.

They're the Democrats, a very big family. Every once in a while they pick on me, especially at election time. Then they're real mean to me. And I get mad back. It doesn't last long.

Most of the time we get along nicely, but I'd appreciate it if you could bring them a big dose of something — like soothing syrup — so they'd always be nice to me. That would be a real good Christmas present. I can tell you why. I have to live here another two years before the lease is up. And in that time I would like to be as happy as possible with a minimum of trouble. I would love to have some peace and quiet. If you have some to spare.

Gilbert, Rt. 3, Hope; Mrs. Virgil Cook, Fulton; Mrs. Mildred Trotter, Halsey; Mrs. Frank O'Rourke, Rt. 4, Hope; W. N. Mullins, Rt. 1, Hope; Mrs. Henry A. Bowden and baby girl, Rt. 3, Hope.

I know you're a very kind man but I just don't know how much influence you have. I sure wish you could use your influence on one person I have in mind.

He's a kind of polly-polly fat man with a bald head. He'd look like you if he had some hair and a white beard. He's a Santa Claus himself.

He's always promising to make things better for people. He's a real pushy type. He gets on my nerves. His name is Nikita Khrushchev.

Could you please put some sense in his head and get him to give up those crazy notions he has about communism being better than capitalism? I think things would get better right away. At least, I hope so.

I'd like some money, too, a lot of money. Not for myself. I'm sitting along all right. But for the Treasury. We have a lot of expenses coming up next year and the Treasury needs money to pay for them.

I'm being called names — like Skinning — because I'm trying to cut down on expenses.

FROM SURGERY TO CHURCH
LIZABETH TOWN, N. C. (AP) — Rev. David Jenkins, pastor of Lizabethtown Presbyterian Church, sustained a hospital with an endodontic attack. "We'll have operated immediately," declared the surgeon.
"It was a Sunday. 'You can't!'
I told the Rev. Mr. Jenkins.
I've got to preach this morning!"
They compromised. The surgeon,
A. F. Humphrey, operated successfully. Later that morning Dr.
Humphrey, a Seventh-Day Adventist, preached at the Presbyterian Church on "Cancer of the Body and Cancer of the Soul."

insurance and maternity benefits for prolific mothers, an increase of nearly 20 billion rubles over 1958. This will include more than 94 billion rubles for education, 44 billion for the health program, over 88 billion for social insurance and 5 1/2 billion for mothers.
"As compared with 1958, the national income will increase by 8 per cent and will be 140 per cent greater than in 1950," Zverev said.
"The finance minister called for increased labor productivity and lower production costs in industry, transport services and agriculture. The labor force is to increase by 1,300,000 workers, but the workers obviously are expected to produce still more than in past years in the campaign to overtake the American economy.

Zverev said the Soviet government expects its budget revenues to rise to 722,900,000,000 rubles, a 10.3 per cent increase over 1958 and expenditures to go up 10.8 per cent to 707,200,000,000 rubles.
By contrast with the big rising expenditures for education and social benefits, a slight decrease was promised in the defense appropriation. This was put at 96, 100,000,000 — $24,025,000,000 — a decrease of 1.5 per cent compared with a 1958 defense appropriation of 96,300,000,000 rubles.

The finance minister said the defense budget "reflects the peace policy of the Soviet Union, a policy of preserving peace in the whole world."
"The actual figure for Soviet defense spending is as greater than that given or the defense appropriation but cannot be estimated.
This is because much of the Kremlin's military expenditure is concealed under other budget headings."
Ralph Bellamy attended classes with paraplegics to play his role of Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Broadway hit play, "Sunrise at Campobello."

Man Acquitted of Tax Evasion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. H.
Bridwell of Heber Springs wept Saturday when a federal district court jury acquitted him of income tax evasion charges.
The federal government had charged the Bridwells, hardware businessman and dealer in war surplus goods, had evaded payment of $88,830 in taxes for 1951-55.
The government presented 74 witnesses during the trial which began Dec. 10. Five persons, including Bridwell, testified as defense witnesses.
The jury deliberated 90 minutes.
